

WHAT CAN I DO WITH A MAJOR IN... ENVIRONMENTAL ECONOMICS & MANAGEMENT

Description of Major

A Bachelor of Science in Environmental Economics and Sustainability is designed for students who want to make a difference in the world now and in the future. Students learn the skills they need through three major areas: environmental science, policy, and economics. Environmental Economics and Sustainability prepares students for a career with a variety of potential employers, including: local governments; federal and state agencies (U.S. EPA, NRCS, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality); environmental interest groups (Ducks Unlimited, The Nature Conservancy); private firms (banks, consulting firms, resource management companies). For More information on this major visit, <http://agecon.msstate.edu/>, stop by 300 Lloyd-Ricks Building or call 662-325-2750.
