

WHAT CAN I DO WITH A MAJOR IN...

INTERIOR DESIGN

Description of Major

The Bachelor of Science in Interior Design is a four-year, studio-based program that prepares students for a professional career in interior design. Admission into this program is competitive, and a portfolio review is required for students between their 2nd and 3rd year in the program. All Interior Design majors are required to complete an internship the summer following their senior year. Many students find internships and full-time employment in interior design and architecture firms across the United States.
