WHAT CAN I DO WITH A MAJOR IN...

SUPPLY CHAIN LOGISTICS

Description of Major

The Bachelor of Business Administration in Supply Chain Logistics major will equip students with the foundational knowledge and skills needed in logistics and supply chain-related roles and careers. This major is the only dedicated bachelor's degree program in supply chain or logistics in the State of Mississippi. The U.S. has one of the most developed logistics infrastructures in the world, giving consumers and businesses access to an enormous variety of goods and services. Supply chain and logistics professionals use this infrastructure to serve customers quickly and efficiently, taking charge of decisions affecting the transporting, warehousing, and order processing of raw materials, purchased parts, and finished goods that are needed in our society. A concentration in International Business is available to all business majors.

Students in the Supply Chain Logistics Major must also complete an international elective course and three supply chain-related elective courses. For more information on this major, please visit business.msstate.edu, stop by 324 McCool Hall, or call 662-325-3163.
